Dear Educator,

Hope this email finds you safe and healthy!

The second wave of COVID-19 has brought about severe impact on lives, livelihoods and wellbeing of all. The university students, staff and their families are suffering as much as everyone else. With uncertainty looming over examinations and admissions, students are experiencing high levels of anxiety about their future. There has been a significant rise in the number of people seeking counseling or help for psychological issues such as depression, anxiety, sleeplessness, fear, stress, sense of loneliness or isolation.

The higher education institutions must be prepared to provide mental health support to students and staff, in these testing times.

To address this issue, FICCI, in partnership with Symbiosis International University, is organizing a Certified Workshop to train the trainers on Psychological First Aid (PFA) , on June 17-18,2021.

This two-day workshop will empower the education community (such as faculty, staff or even students) to provide psychological first aid to individuals who may need it as well as be able to facilitate support groups on campuses.

We would like to invite you to nominate the staff, faculty, student from your institution, to register for this workshop, at : <http://registrations.ficci.com/fsttwm/online-registration.asp> .

More details about the workshop are enclosed for your reference. For any further details, you may reach out to us education@ficci.com/ 9582584117.

Are you a socially confident person?

Are you an enthusiastic person?

Do you like to talk a lot or want to work alone?

Do you want to know whether your business partner is honest or not?

Are you stressed about your future?

Do you want to know what kind of a person your employee is?

If you are interested to know the answers to all these questions, then join us for the session on

Date: 26th July 2021

Time: 6pm- 7:30 pm

Venue: Google meet
