ABOUT QUOD!

"The acquisition of knowledge is always of use to the intellect, because it may thus drive out useless things and retain the good. For nothing can be loved or hated unless it is first known."

~ Leonardo da Vinci

Through quizzing and debating competitions and events, the Quizzing and Debating Society of SIBM Pune, established in February 2016, fosters an interest in knowledge. It is a purely student-run organization dedicated to raising awareness and imparting knowledge, developing communication skills by organizing public speaking and debating activities, and promoting the ability to think freely and on your feet.

QUOD aims to integrate learning and enjoyment into the lives of students through activities, content, and events. Public speaking and quizzing events are organized which encourage participation, learning, and facilitates personal development.

QUOD organizes events aimed at the personal development of the students through group discussions, debates, and mock interview sessions, along with detailed feedback on the performance of the students allowing them to continuously improve and enhance their preparation for their future endeavors in the corporate world.

Along with these events QUOD aims to continuously engage students with quiz events throughout the year. These quiz events span over various categories including general knowledge, current affairs, business awareness, sports, media, science and technology, and much more, along with some special treasure hunt or puzzle style rounds.

Event Period: July 2021

To help the students better prepare for their summer placements, Communiqué was organised, to provide the students an opportunity to strengthen their communication skills further.

Students were divided into groups of 6-8, and Group Discussion sessions were conducted. After each session, feedback was given to each student based on their individual performance. A clear and individual in-depth feedback is shared to the students via mail and suggestions were given to them for improvement. Students would often ask questions to the panellists to clarify any lingering doubts or take suggestions and engage interactively. The event was conducted to give the students an interactive platform where they can practice sitting in GDs and develop themselves.

JAM

Event Date: 11th August 2021

JAM – Just A Minute is an interesting and fun-filled extempore event with only one major rule – you must speak for a minute. Contestants engaged in two nail-biting rounds of extempore, where they showcased their listening and improvisation skills, by JAMming in and speaking their heart out on the given topic. Each participant was given a topic and had to speak on it for 60 seconds. Participants could “Jam” in whenever the speaker had any discrepancy in his speaking, and then take the stage for themselves and score points.

The first round was based on the popular game ‘Taboo’ where the participants must talk about the given topic without using the taboo words shown on screen, and the second round was based on spinning a story on the wacky scenario presented to them. Any discrepancy in their speech is an opportunity for others to JAM-in and score points for themselves. The extempore and intense jamming kept everyone on the edge of their seat.

PROS AND CONFERENCE

Date: 19th March 2022

QUOD, as a part of E-Summit 2022, organised by the Social, Entrepreneurship, and Consulting Cell (SECC), organised a first-of-its-kind MUN style debating competition, Pros and Conference. It was open to all college students, and witnessed participation from students of all fields and backgrounds including UG, PG, and PhD students.

The debates and discussions conducted in Pros and Conference were not with the aim of each student putting his/her point forward and maintaining their ground, but to understand the given scenario, voice their concerns, and solutions, as well as understand their opponent, to eventually find the sustainable way forward.

Pros and Conference was conducted in two rounds:

Qualifier: Participants had to choose their order of preference and stance for 3 given topics. According to their preferences, students were paired and they engaged in a 1v1 debate where they would deliver an opening statement followed by a discussion period.

Final Round: The finalists acted as PROfessional Consultants, each specialising and looking after two departments, in a round table CONFERENCE to discuss the PROS and CONS of the given case. Each participant was responsible for addressing the issues faced by their department, propose solutions and define the strategic way forward with respect to the given case, while also keeping the interests and limitations of the other departments in consideration.

The event was judged by esteemed alumni of SIBM Pune and eminent public speakers and debaters, Mr Bibhav Singh and Mr Neelesh Das.

Winner - Vaibhav Nikam (VIIT)

Runners up - Ishika Agarwal (SIBM Pune)
