COMPENDIUM

These dynamic preparatory publications serve as a comprehensive resource hub, offering invaluable insights into global business news, emerging trends, and industry developments. Through meticulously curated content, COMPENDIUM empowers students with a nuanced understanding of current affairs, equipping them to navigate the complexities of the business world with confidence.

Covering a wide spectrum of topics, from market analysis to technological innovations, it serves as a beacon of knowledge, keeping students abreast of the latest happenings in the dynamic landscape of business. By distilling complex information into digestible nuggets, this fosters a culture of continuous learning and critical thinking among the students, preparing them to excel in academic pursuits and professional endeavors alike.

With its engaging format and diverse range of resources, COMPENDIUM fosters intellectual growth and strategic thinking. It has produced seven editions tailored for the SIRP and CRP processes, reinforcing its significance as a vital tool for student progress.

JUST -A- MINUTE

JAM is an engaging extemporaneous event designed to challenge contestants to speak uninterrupted for one minute. This unique competition pushes participants to showcase their speaking, listening, observation, and improvisation skills through two competitive rounds. Each contestant selects a topic from a predetermined group and strives to articulate as much as possible within the given time constraint. The format emphasizes the importance of quick thinking and spontaneity, encouraging participants to think on their feet and present their ideas coherently and effectively under pressure.

This dynamic format fosters a lively atmosphere of skillful communication, making JAM a platform where individuals can effectively articulate their ideas and captivate an audience within a structured timeframe. The event is not only entertaining but also intellectually stimulating, providing a unique opportunity for participants to demonstrate their eloquence and insight. By combining elements of education and entertainment, JAM encourages participants to hone their public speaking abilities, engage their audience, and develop confidence in their improvisational skills, all within the excitement of a timed challenge.

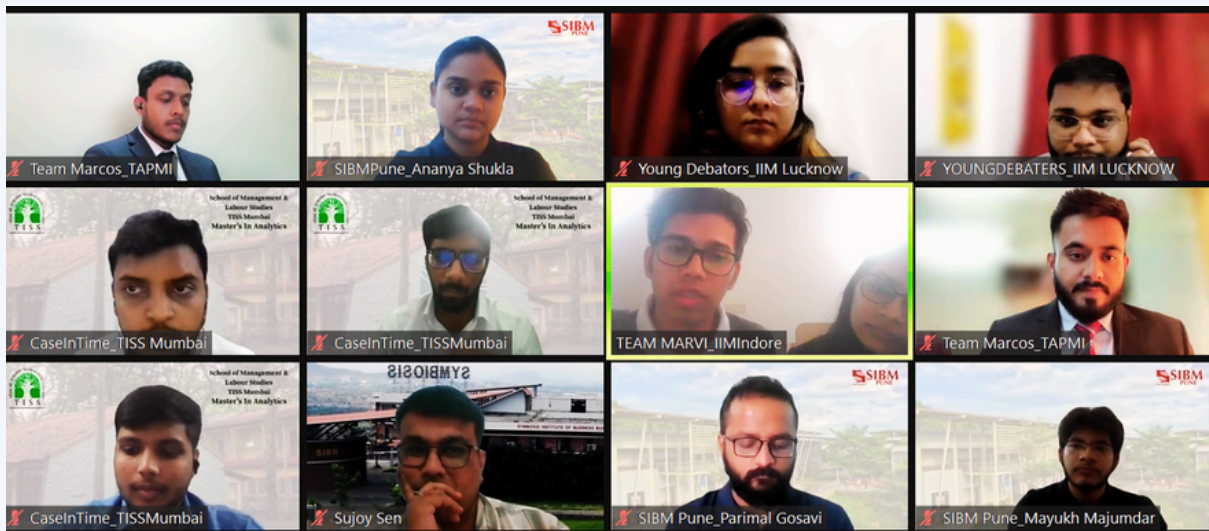

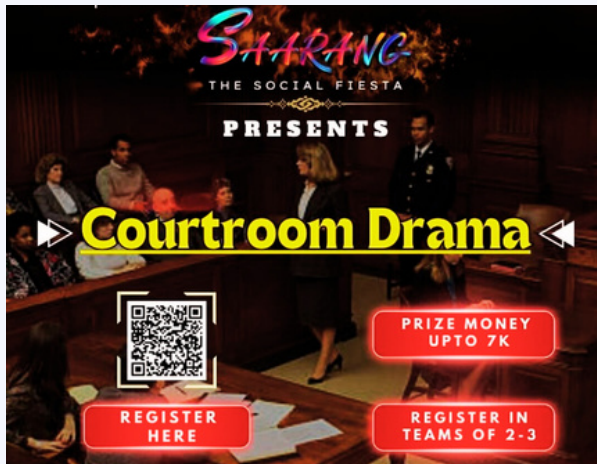

BLOCK & TACKLE

This year's Block and Tackle had two rounds, the first round being the debate round where each team was randomly allocated a "for" or "against" a topic. Each team had 2 minutes to prepare and 3 minutes for open debate. The top 4 teams moved to the final round, which included a case study cum debate competition where each team was given the task to analyze the case, present their findings, and also find the flaws in other teams' strategies for the same case study. This immersive format not only allows teams to exhibit their prowess in argumentation and critical thinking but also fosters spirited debates and intellectual discourse.

In the ultimate showdown, 'Jhagda Enthusiasts' from MBA 2 emerged triumphant. They were joined by 'Team Sher' securing second place and 'The Last Minute Duo' achieving a commendable third. By promoting teamwork, analytical prowess, and a deeper appreciation for diverse perspectives, the event serves as a catalyst for personal and intellectual growth, providing students with a platform to sharpen their abilities and expand their knowledge across various domains.

THE COURT ROOM DRAMA

"Courtroom Drama 2024," in collaboration with The Social and Governance Cell, marks the convergence of legal acumen and pragmatic business challenges through a prestigious national-level quiz and case competition. This inter-college event plunges participants into simulated legal scenarios, meticulously designed to evaluate their depth of knowledge and adeptness in solving real-world business dilemmas. It serves as an invaluable platform for aspiring legal professionals hailing from elite B schools to exhibit their mastery and strategic prowess while adeptly navigating intricate legal landscapes, thus fostering a dynamic showcase of expertise and critical thinking in the realm of law and business.
